Introduction

This directory has been created to support those working in the anti-trafficking sector in London.

The following sections have been categorised by the support services provided and the specialised groups they are tailored to. Each entry details the service offered by an organisation that falls under the heading, but the full list of services will be shown within the Services A-Z index. The Service Index A-Z is where all organisations' contact information, further details on services, eligibility and referral processes can be found. To go directly to the organisation in the Service A-Z index click on the underlined heading.

Organisations that do not offer frontline support to service users can be found in the Service A-Z.

All organisations have been contacted and have confirmed the services they offer. If any information needs updating, or services are missing please contact info@humantraffickingfoundation.org.
