

Safeguarding Children who go Missing

Background

Every child or young person returning to home or returning after being missing must have an independent return from missing interview (IRMI). This training gives an overview of the process and relevant procedures for partner agencies.

Learning Outcomes

At the end of these briefing, participants will be able:

- To define the term 'missing' for young people and the risks this poses
- To understand the process for safeguarding children who go missing from home.
- To understand the role and remit of the Family Intervention Service.
- To identify additional support services for young people returned from missing.
