

Young Women and Girls Affected by 'Gangs' and County Lines

Background

Figures from the Children's Commissioner for England suggest that girls account for as many as 34% of the 6,830 children aged under 17 in England assessed by councils as being involved in gangs. Girls caught up in gangs are at risk of both criminal and sexual exploitation

Learning Outcomes

At the end of this session, participants will be able:

- To understand the differences in how boys and girls experience criminal exploitation, youth violence and gangs
- To recognise some of the ways girls are groomed
- To list different indicators and vulnerability factors
- To learn about different services available in Redbridge
