

Voice of the Child and Safeguarding

Background

This training is based on learning from Serious Case Reviews (SCRs), research and good practice in relation to the 'voice' of the child. It is intended for professionals who work directly with children and young people and managers of front-line workers.

Learning Outcomes

At the end of this half-day session participants will:

- Have an understanding of the importance of the 'voice' of the child.
- Know messages from Serious Case Reviews and research, including the impact of not listening to children
- Receive guidance and resources to demonstrate that the 'voice' of the child is central to promoting welfare and safeguarding in their setting.
