

Considering Cultural Competence in Safeguarding Children

Level 2

Background

This course aims to enhance practitioners' knowledge, skills and understanding of how race, culture and/or faith and belief systems can impact on our safeguarding practice. The course will also focus on key learning from the Child Safeguarding Practice Review, "It's Silent": Race, racism and safeguarding children.

Learning Outcomes

By the end of the course participants will be able to:

- Describe the influence of their own and their families' race, culture, faith or beliefs on parenting and how we see children and families.
- Display confidence in talking about their own and other people's attitudes and beliefs – and how these might affect their judgment
- Describe cultural competence and professional curiosity in safeguarding practice.
